

Geoprobe® DM450 Water Well Rig

Top Head Carriage

Top head carriage uses rollers instead of slides, providing smoother travel, easier maintenance, and longer life.

Stable, Stout Drill Rig Powers Through Tough Sites

Top head offering both torque and speed to the impressive power to weight ratio make the DM450 well suited for water well, geothermal, and/or cathodic protection drilling while minimizing maintenance.

Drill Mast

Comes with 25,000 lbs. of pullback and 15,000 lbs. of crowd force along with 32-inch side shift (or 16-inch with the single rod loader) of the 2-speed rotary drive with 4,600 ft-lb torque. The rigid drill mast design makes drilling straighter holes easier.

Rod Carousel

Backfeeding while running drill pipe allows operators to reach total depth from the carousel. Options accommodate preferred pipe size:

- 3.5-inch rod: 12 rods in carousel (240 feet) + 18 rods in optional box (360 feet) = 600 feet
- 4.5-inch rod: 10 rods in carousel (200 feet) + 15 rods in optional box (300 feet) = 500 feet

Mud Pump & Air Compressor

Mud pump options up to 5.5 x 8 piston and air compressor options up to 500/200 make this a strong, compact drill rig.

Single Rod Loader

Using the helper side controls to operate the jib and winch functions, the helper loads the drill pipe in the single rod loader. This makes the DM450 drill rig easy to operate with a two-man crew and minimizes top head movement which facilitates faster production.

Control Panel

Durable, mechanical controls simplify operation and training of new drillers. Organized control panel includes engine monitoring, safety E-stop, hydraulic pressure gauges, friction control levers for mud pump and rotation circuits, and electronic throttle controls.

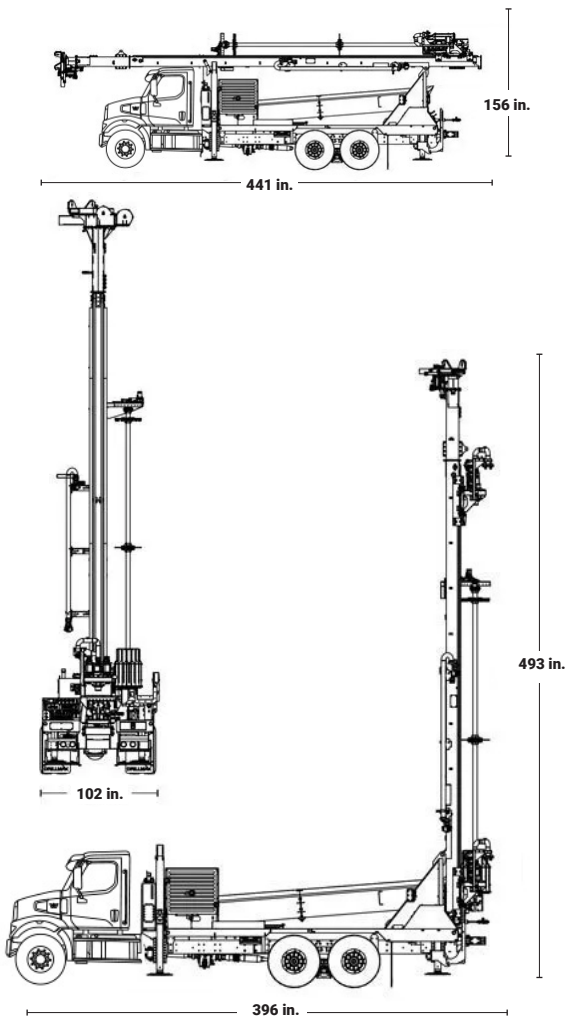

Table Assembly & Breakout Wrench

The table assembly has clearance for 16-inch PVC casing. Air-powered holding fork and hydraulically-operated, adjustable breakout wrench make tripping out fast and safe.
